Andante.

Voice.

Piano.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. The voice part is on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a whole rest, followed by a series of whole notes. The piano accompaniment is on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one sharp. It starts with a forte (ff) dynamic and features a complex, rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The score includes various musical notations such as rests, notes, beams, and dynamic markings like 'p' (piano) and 'din' (diminuendo). A large '+' sign is placed above the piano staff in the middle of the piece.

Le souffle embaumé du printemps
De fleurs a-t-il semé les champs!
L'écho bien vite redit ses chants:
Sur la montagne,
Vin vieux &c.

3

Vienne l'hiver et ses frimas,
Il part et bravant le trépas,
Pensif, répète encore tout bas:
Sur la montagne
Vin vieux &c.

4

Puis, quand tout chargé de butin,
Il touche au terme du chemin,
Au loin résonne son gai refrain:
Sur la montagne
Vin vieux &c.

2

When the soft zephyrs play,
Over the mountain, field and flower,
To repeat his dear lay
Echo chooses this hour.
On the mountain side &c

3

'Mid Alpine glaciers wild
With snow, and frost, which winter brings
He braves death unchilled,
While softly he sings —
On the mountain side &c

4

At length the prize is won,
He stays to rest on his homeward way;
And as the chase is done,
Gaily sings his lay, —
On the mountain side &c
